Alpha Iota Chapter

March 2019

DKG Sisterhood

Anita, Debbie, and Cheryl joined Gamma Alpha on March 16, to hear Dr. Ruth Baskerville speak about her journey in education and healing after the loss of her husband. We enjoyed meeting Dr. Baskerville, her granddaughters and daughter and visiting with our DKG sisters.

May Chapter Meeting

The May chapter meeting will begin at Arts Clayton on May 4th at 10:00 a.m. We will view the exhibit of Georgia Artists with Disabilities and an Arts Clayton Member Artist show. Then, we will move to The Fig Tree Cafe for a business meeting and a visit from a representative of Nothing But The Truth. Nothing But the Truth provides “Weekend Food Bags” for over 850 children weekly, in 41 local elementary schools. Please bring food items such as pop tarts, granola bars, instant oatmeal, crackers, cookies, chips, raisins, or fruit cups for their weekend food ministry. After the meeting, we will enjoy lunch, which you can pre-order by e-mail, on our chapter website or on our planning document. This will allow the staff at the cafe to have enough food for our group. Menu options are located on the meeting flyer. Please invite prospective members.

Olivia Would Be Proud!

Anita, Bonnie, and Cindy did a fantastic job on our Olivia themed table at the Ferst Readers Spring Luncheon on March 20th. During the program, Dr. Mary Elizabeth Davis, the Superintendent of Henry County Schools, spoke about her passion for literacy and the focus of making sure each child is successful. Awards were given to the top Henry County schools that raised funds for the organization. We enjoyed a lunch of chicken salad on a croissant, pasta salad, and cookies.

"I am on a mission to make sure wellness checkups are about healthy little brains as well as healthy little bodies."
Dr. Mary Elizabeth Davis, Superintendent, Henry County Schools
