

New Officers Attend DKG Leadership Institute

Laura Michelle Woods, President; Cheryl Goff, Vice President and Deborah Bhanojirow, Vice President, of the Alpha Iota Chapter of The Delta Kappa Gamma Society International, attended the Psi State (Georgia) Organization Leadership Institute on Saturday, August 16, 2014, in Macon. DKG is a professional honor society for women educators promoting professional and personal growth of women educators and excellence in education. The organization has approximately 90,000 members in 17 countries around the world.

The Leadership session was facilitated by Dr. Lace Brogden, Associate Professor of Education and Director of the Programme du baccalaureat en education at the University of Regina, Regina, Saskatchewan, Canada. Dr. Brogden is a member of the Delta Kappa Gamma Society International organization and is currently serving the Society as the 2012-2014 Northwest Regional Director and member of the DKG Administrative Board. Dr. Brogden's theme for the leadership training was Understanding Leadership in Personal Praxis.

Goff said, "Dr. Brogden was very entertaining and engaging, while providing essential information for DKG leadership."

To learn more about the benefits and opportunities for DKG members and non-members, visit the Society's site at www.dkg.org.

